LYNN, MASS.

Foodstuffs—Protection of. (Reg. Bd. of H., Aug. 17, 1915.)

SECTION 1. It is hereby ordered that, except during the process of sale, no meat, fish, vegetables, fruit, nut meats, provisions, baker's or confectioner's products of all kinds, or any other article of food intended for human consumption, either cooked or uncooked, shall be conveyed from place to place, kept or exposed for sale in any open window, doorway, stall, booth, or vehicle outside of a building or any other place within the city of Lynn unless raised at least 18 inches above the ground, sidewalk, platform, or place upon which it is displayed, and covered with clean material so as to be fully protected from dust, flies, animals, or other sources of contamination.

SEC. 2. The exposure or display of foodstuffs in any window in which other articles of merchandise are displayed is hereby prohibited.

SEC. 3. Every owner or occupant of any building, room, booth, stall, vehicle, or other place in which human food is prepared, kept, stored, or offered for sale shall maintain such premises, vehicles, or other appurtenances in a clean and wholesome condition.

SEC. 4. Every person while engaged in the handling of articles of food to be sold or offered for sale shall wear clean garments and shall be free from infectious, contagious, or communicable diseases.

SEC. 5. Every room, stall, booth, stand, or other place where articles of food are prepared or offered for sale shall be fitted with such hot and cold water facilities or other appliances as may be required and approved by the board of health, and no such place shall have a water-closet open directly into it or be used for domestic purposes.

SEC. 6. The use of unclean paper or newspaper as an outside or inside wrapping of articles of food is hereby prohibited.

SEC. 7. Every owner or occupant of a building, room, stall, booth, vehicle, or other place in which articles of food are prepared, sold, or offered for sale shall provide a covered water-tight receptacle of sufficient size for the wastes of their business, and which shall be at all times kept covered and so disposed of as not to cause a nuisance.
